HEALING WITHOUT MEDICINE.
THE GREAT "ANDREW" AT MUSIC HALL
EVERY AFTERNOON AT 2.30.

All Manner of Diseases Are Cured on the Open Stage Simply by the Laying on of Hands.

The sick, crippled, lame and deaf are cured entirely free, and admission to the hall is also free. Every day the most remarkable phenomena are presented—and such a wonderful exhibition has never been seen on any stage.
It is no exaggeration to say that the oldest and most confirmed cripples do arise and walk and run, leaving their canes and crutches behind—and that the deaf are made to hear. The names of many already cured can be ascertained—everybody should come and see these wonderful cures made.

The doctors have permanently located an office at the Hotel Westminster, where they can be consulted free, from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. daily. All sick people should consult these eminent physicians at once, while everything is done absolutely free.

THE FAIR AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH

Conducted by the Ladies' Aid Society.
Funeral of Miss Victoria Jones, of the First Welsh Baptist Church—Surprise Party for Jacob Koch.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth Congregational church opened their fair and festival at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the church chapel.
The afternoon was devoted chiefly to children, although a large number of ladies were present. The room is prettily decorated with flags and bunting which, with the booths, make the scene very attractive. At the central booth are sold all kinds of fancy work and donated articles. Those in charge are:
Misses Jennie Lewis, Della P. Evans, Lizzie A. Evans, Martha Vaughn and Maggie Price. The children's booth consists chiefly of dolls of which there is a large variety. It is in charge of Mrs. W. J. Morgan, Mrs. William T.
Davies, Miss Lizzie Davies. At the apron booth are Miss Ella O. Evans, Mrs. Margaret Reese, Mrs. John Edwards and Mrs. Joseph. There are three tables.

The cashiers are Richard Owens and A. H. Eynon. Those who wait at tables are Mrs. H. F. Fisher, Mrs.
William James, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs.
Belle Harris, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs.
Saul Jones; at the quilts are Mrs.
Maria Allen, Mrs. John H. Williams and Mrs. John Evans; kitchen, Mrs.
Jenett Hughes, Mrs. G. F. Eynon, Mrs.
William Gray, Mrs. Joseph Hughes, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Lizzie Reese.
The fair was opened with remarks by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Bell, followed by prayer. Several business men made donations, among whom are Kramer Bros., Fred Reynolds, Hull & Co., Protheros & Co., Williams & McNulty.
Provisions were donated by the ladies.
The officers of the society are: President, Mrs. John A. James; vice president, Mrs. John A. Evans; secretary, Mrs. W. S. Morgan; treasurer, Mrs. D.
R. Williams.

Miss Jones Buried.
The funeral of Miss Victoria Jones, the daughter of Reese Jones, who died at her parents' home on Ninth street on Saturday evening, took place at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A very large number attended. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. W. G. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Jacob Jones, of Plymouth, and Rev. A. W. Cooper, of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church. The floral tributes were very beautiful.
The remains were conveyed to the Washburn Street cemetery, where interment was made. The flower bearers were Misses Martha Davies and Alice Williams. D. J. Davies, John Edwards, William J. Thomas, William Parry and John Edwards.

Minor News Notes.
Misses Grace Thayer and Gertrude Miller, of this side, have returned home from a visit with Pittston friends.
The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company will pay their employees at the Sloan and Hampton mines today.
A Welsh costume entertainment and social will be held by classes No. 8 and 9 of the Tabernacle Sunday school this evening. Admission, 10 cents.

Miss Beale Daniels, of Nanticoke, a niece of Mrs. W. G. Daniels, of South Main street, died on Sunday at her home. The funeral occurred yesterday.
A large number of West Side people will leave for Lansford tomorrow to attend the funeral of the late Morgan Evans. Mr. Evans was a former resident of this side.

A surprise party was held on Monday evening in honor of Jacob Koch, at his home on North Bromley avenue. About thirty couples were present. The evening was devoted to music, games and dancing.

Morgan Evans (Mourig Aman), of Lansford, died very suddenly of pneumonia Sunday at 1.30 p. m., after an illness of only a few days. His funeral will take place tomorrow. Services at Lansford at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers and son, of Camden, N. J.; James Brown, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Vining and Mr. and Mrs. Stocker of Great Bend, are here attending the funeral of Mrs. H. E. Brown, of North Sumner avenue, which occurs this afternoon.

The gang of workmen in the employ of the Scranton Traction company have finished the work of laying rails between Swatland street and Bull's head, with the exception of the wire connections on each rail. It is expected that the road will be opened about the middle of this month.

An exciting game of foot ball took place yesterday afternoon between the teams of No. 14 and No. 18 schools.
No. 14 team was superior to their opponents in every way. The rushing and tackling was remarkable. Final score was 12 to 9 in favor of No. 14.
Coons and Williams made the touchdowns for the winning team, and Walter Davies, the full back, kicked both goals.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PEARCE.
Interment Made in Forest Hill Cemetery Yesterday Afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Pearce, wife of Francis Pearce, were laid in their last resting place in Forest Hill cemetery, yesterday afternoon.
The funeral services were conducted at the home of the deceased in Park Place, by Rev. George L. Aldrich, her pastor. He made a short address, mentioning the fact that Mrs. Pearce was one of the charter members of Grace church and bearing testimony to her genuine Christian character. During her last illness she had expressed her readiness to depart if it were God's will. She had left to her husband, daughter, friends, a legacy richer than any earthly possession, the bright example of a Christian life. Their greatest comfort would be in looking forward to the time of re-union, the resurrection morning.

Appropriate hymns were sung by a quartet from the choir of Grace church, consisting of Mrs. S. G. Smith, Miss Elsie Brown, Will McCullough and Harry Lathrop.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE.

Reports from John Hefty's Bedside Agree That He Will Be Well in a Week—Splendid Anniversary Entertainment of the Royal Arcanum.

An examination by the physicians at the Moses Taylor hospital upon John Hefty, of Cedar avenue, who attempted suicide by shooting himself twice with a revolver, disclosed no fatal wounds, and it is their opinion that Hefty will be strong enough to be sent home in a few days. They did not make a complete examination until yesterday, and it appears that the bullet which entered his breast went out at his back.
The bullet wound in his lip is a superficial one.

Hefty has expressed himself as utterly disgusted with the failure of the attempt upon his life and speaks as if he intends to make a complete job of it the next time.

Royal Arcanum Entertainment.
The anniversary entertainment of Electric City Council, No. 1341, Royal Arcanum, at the hall over the Messers's store last night, was an occasion of enjoyment to the members and their friends. The audience taxed the seating capacity of the rooms and applauded liberally the very fine numbers on the impromptu programme. No previous arrangements in selecting entertainers was made. Everybody was well pleased.

Shorter Paragraphs.
Henry Hershey, of Pittston avenue, has returned after a few days' visit in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Miller, of Cedar avenue, are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents in Philadelphia.

Tonight a quarterly conference of the officers of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will be held.

Chicken thieves paid a visit to the roost of Steve Gregory, of Cherry street, and carried off everything but the boards.

Dancing Master Charles Haskins is organizing a class from among the popular and prominent young folks of the Twentieth ward.

Tommy Mullaney, of Stone avenue, is reported as being much improved and the surgeons at the Lackawanna hospital now think that his leg can be saved.

The Ladies' Aid and King's Daughters societies of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will hold a meeting at the church parlors this evening.

This afternoon the funeral of Lottie, the 7-year-old daughter of Henry Hener, of Prospect avenue, will take place. Interment will be made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

The funeral of John, the 4-year-old son of John Ruane, of Beech street, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

James Connell lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a banquet at the lodge rooms in Frushan's hall this evening in honor of Moscow lodge, the members of which will be present as guests.

Edward H. Jordan, having retired from the undertaking firm which bears his name, has purchased the two lots on the corner of Prospect avenue and Cherry street and as soon as he adopts plans he intends to build a large structure that will possess all the modern improvements. It will be used as his place of business and he proposes to start in the same line and has just retired from. The lots have a frontage of fifty-three feet.

Great Reduction in Millinery.
Trimmed (and untrimmed) hats at a great sacrifice. MISS J. FILLER, 514 Spruce street, Opp. Court House.

MORE SNEAK THIEVING.

Goods Stolen from in Front of the Fair.

Yesterday three men stole pieces of goods which were exhibited on the sidewalk in front of the Fair on Lackawanna avenue and quietly walked down the alley and over the railroad to Scranton flats, where they conducted an auction sale of the stolen goods.

The three men are alleged to be working the city in this manner and making a substantial revenue by disposing of the goods in the outer parts of the city. David Pugh, said to be one of the men, was arrested last night by Officers Roche and Feehey.

Scranton's Business Interests.
THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources.
Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large.
Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

The $40,000 School House. for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few more lots left to be sold.

NORTH END NOTES.

The Excelsior band will hold their annual ball in Company H armory tonight.

George W. Davis is making a number of improvements to the interior of the Lewie drug store.

Stones have been hauled for the foundation walls of the Lithuanian church on Electric City park.
Rev. W. F. Davies delivered an address on Burma and its inhabitants to a large number in the Welsh Baptist church Monday evening.

The choir of the Welsh Baptist church, numbering about sixty voices, is rehearsing the cantata, "The King in Zion," which they intend to give in the near future.

Grant Keeney and daughter, Annie, of Black Walnut, are visiting Dr. Dawson, who performed an operation on her throat from the effects of which she is rapidly recovering.

George W. Buckley, corresponding secretary of the Board of Church Extension of Christian church, will address the congregation of the Christian church on Main avenue next Sunday night.

The ladies of the Park Place Methodist church will hold their annual bazaar in the church parlors this week, beginning this evening. A musical programme has been prepared for each evening.

Jacob Lotz, of the coal and iron police, arrested Walter Zenke and Panell Steiger, two Poles, for stealing a ride on coal trains on the main line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad yesterday afternoon. They were brought before Alderman Williams last night, who severely reprimanded and then discharged them.

Joseph T. Poux, of Summit avenue, was married to Miss Annie Williams, daughter of David Williams, of Green street, last night at the parsonage of the Welsh Baptist church by Rev. W.
F. Davis. They went directly to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs.
Henry Evans, of Wayne avenue, where they will reside for some time.

At a regular business meeting held Monday evening of the Green Ridge Conclave, No. 199, of the Improved Order of Heptasophis, the following officers were elected: Archon, Professor H. L. Burdick; proposit, Marion Richmond; inspector, John Reese; warden, John L. Wolfe; prelate, W. S. Found-sentinel, James Atherton; secretary, M.
M. Bennett; financier, J. W. Carpenter; trustees, M. L. Fine, G. E. Gibson and S. A. Addyman. Dr. J. B. Van Bergen was chosen as representative to the supreme convocation, which will meet in New Haven, Conn., in May, 1895, with M. M. Bennett as alternative.
